

Stop the War!

BIKES not BOMBS!

Cycle from London to Manchester
To Demonstrate at the Labour Party Conference on Sept 23rd.

Tower Hamlets Stop The War are organising a protest cycle to tell Blair:

“It’s time to go”.

- Troops out of Iraq, Afghanistan
- Israel out of Palestine and the Lebanon
- Don’t Attack Iran/Syria
- No replacement of Trident
- No new nuclear power stations.

There will be two start dates, depending on how much time you have available. Either leave on Wed 20th Sept to cycle to Oxford and on to Birmingham on Thurs, or on Thurs 21st Sept to cycle all the way to Birmingham in one day. Both days the protest will leave from the Green bridge over Mile End Road at 7am with a pick up point at 7.15am at Parliament Square for those from other areas who wish to join in but have no need to come out to East London so early in the morning!

On Friday 22nd, we will leave Birmingham at 8.30 a.m. and cycle to Buxton.

On Saturday morning, we will complete the journey to Manchester, leaving Buxton at 8.30am, stopping off at Stockport station at 10.30am to meet up with other cyclists from all over the country to finish off with a protest cycle around the Labour Party Conference.

The probable route will be A40 to Oxford, A340 to Birmingham, A515 to Buxton and A6 to Manchester.

Why not join us either at the start or along the way?

Why not bring a group from your area, wherever you are, to join us at Stockport Station?

We will have a back-up minibus, to carry luggage and for any cyclists requiring a rest!
